The return of Elsa Ryan in "Peg o' Heart' to the Belasco next week a second engagement this season would be remarkable evidence of the opularity of J. Hartley Manners omedy if it were not for the fact that he company has been receiving such vidences throughout its tour of the West. When Miss Ryan and the same ast seen here before begin their second week's engagement in the National apital, Laurette Taylor and 'he New York company will start their five hundred and eightieth performance of the plece at the Cort Theater in New York. It is seldom that a comedy has been good enough to remain in New York for practically two years, and yet that a just what "peg" has done. There has been no change in the company since it left here early in the scason. The return engagement is being played by popular request. Manager Taylor, of the Belasco, have a been besieged with rleas from patrons of his house who were unable to attend the original per-telligence in running to earth two of respite the fact that there are only a few big releast that have ever been able to do satisfactory business two weeks in the same season in this city Mr Taylor took a chance and arranged for the return.
